

Evil and Its Variations in the Works of Elizabeth Gaskell: Sesquicentennial Essays

Edited by Mitsuharu Matsuoka
Osaka, JP: Osaka Kyoiku Tosho, 2015

Foreword MILLER, J. Hillis (University of California Irvine, US)

Preface FOSTER, Shirley (President of the Gaskell Society, UK)

Chronology WEYANT, Nancy S. (Bloomsburg University, US)

Notes on Contributors

Acknowledgements

Introduction

Mary Barton (1848)

1. HOYT, Veronica (University of Canterbury, New Zealand)
English Tea and Chinese Opium: A Contrast between Good and Evil in Mary Barton?
 1. English Trade in Tea
 2. Working-Class Tea-Party
 3. Opium in Exchange for Tea
 4. English Cotton Products in Exchange for Opium
2. LI, Fang (Hankuk University of Foreign Studies, South Korea)
Dives and Lazarus: Indifference Novelized as Evil in Mary Barton
 1. Blasphemy and Variations
 2. Evil without Malice
 3. Self-Help or Mutual Interconnection
 4. Political Economy and the 'Conversation Method'
3. MARRONI, Francesco (University of Pescara, Italy)
Evil and Ontological Loneliness in Mary Barton
 1. Self-Definition as an Interiorisation of Social Evils
 2. Political Assassination: A Reply to Ubiquitous Evil?
 3. Alienation and Self-Alienation: From Speech to Silence
 4. Evil and Its Consequencess

The Moorland Cottage (1850)

4. RECCHIO, Thomas (University of Connecticut, US)
Wordsworthian Pastoral and the Problem of Evil in The Moorland Cottage
 1. Defining Evil

2. Wordsworthian Pastoral, Economics, and Off-Stage Evil
3. Radical Evil in The Moorland Cottage
4. Self-Interest, Radical Evil, and the Impulse for Annihilation

Cranford (1851-53)

5. MIYAMARU, Yuji (Chuo University, Japan)
 - ‘The World Must Be Very Bad’: The Rules Dominating Cranford
 - 1. Cranford Rules
 - 2. Virtue Unrewarded
 - 3. Sincerity in Cranford
 - 4. Evil Relativized
6. MORRIS, Emily (University of Saskatchewan, Canada)
 - “A Very Pleasant-Looking Dragon”: Ethnography, Humor, Evil, and Otherness in Cranford
 - 1. Ethnography and Humor in Cranford
 - 2. Cranford vs. London: We and You, Kindness and Evil
 - 3. The Panic: Evils Real and Imaginary in Cranford
 - 4. The Pleasant Dragon: Embracing the Culture of Cranford
7. WEEKS, Mark (Nagoya University, Japan)
 - Cranford’s ‘Organic Community’ and the Dark Spectre of Time
 - 1. The Stakes of Temporal Analysis
 - 2. Cranford at a Historical Moment of Temporal Transformation
 - 3. The Organic Community Confronts the Demon of Time
 - 4. The Pleasures of Temporal Disjunction

Ruth (1853)

7. DINIEJKO, Andrzej (Warsaw University, Poland)
 - Ruth* and the Fallen Woman Question in Victorian England
 - 1. The Fallen Woman Question in Victorian England
 - 2. The Victorian Debates on Illegitimacy and Child Welfare
 - 3. Gaskell’s Ambivalent Attitude to the Fallen Woman Question
 - 4. A Christian Parable of Sin and Atonement
8. KAWASAKI, Akiko (Komazawa University, Japan)
 - The Neutralisation of Illness in Ruth
 - 1. The Three Kinds of “Evil” in Ruth
 - 2. The Three Types of Illness in Ruth
 - 3. Illness for Bellingham and Ruth
 - 4. The Neutralisation of Illness
9. PIKE, E. Holly (Memorial University of Newfoundland, Canada)

“Exposed to Corruption”: Evil as Contagion in Ruth

1. Critical Reception
2. Evil as a Moral Entity
3. The Physical and Moral Environment
4. Contagion and Prevention

North and South (1854-55)

11. HUGUET, Christine (University of Lille III, France)

North and South: Gaskell’s Version of the Felix Culpa?

1. Gaskell’s Portrayal of the Split Self?
2. “For Conscience’ Sake”
3. Transcending Nothingness
4. Evil Defeated

12. KUHLMAN, Mary H. (Creighton University, US)

Deception and Discord in North and South

1. Various Evils in North and South
2. The Greatest Evils: Separation, Loss, Discord
3. Deception, Honor and Shame
4. Deception, Lies, Discord and Resolution

13. MATSUOKA, Mitsuharu (Nagoya University, Japan)

“There’s Good and Bad in Everything”: The Status Quo as a Necessary Evil in North and South

1. Pride and Prejudice as Vices of Self-Help
2. Indifference as a Sin of Omission
3. The Perceived Evils of Collective Labor
4. Mutual Aid among Individuals

The Life of Charlotte Brontë (1857)

14. OHNO, Tatsuhiko (Kumamoto University, Japan)

A Topic-Modelling Analysis of the Sacred and the Secular in The Life of Charlotte Brontë

1. Analysis of Christianity in Topic-Modelling Keywords
2. Contextual Analysis of “Home”
3. Contextual Analysis of the Haworth Parsonage
4. The Sacred and the Secular at “Home”

15. SOWA, Matsuto (Kinjo Gakuin University, Japan)

Poor Brontë and Preachy Gaskell: Evils in The Life of Charlotte Brontë

1. Critical Evaluations of The Life of Charlotte Brontë
2. Villains in The Life of Charlotte Brontë

3. The 'Woman Question' and Women

4. The Heroine's Death

16. TAMURA, Manami (Nihon University, Japan)

The Life of Charlotte Brontë: Life Writing and Ill Will

1. The Germ of the Biography

2. "Three people I want to libel"

3. Threats of Lawsuits

4. Horner's Nest

My Lady Ludlow (1858)

17. YAN, Shu-chuan (National University of Kaohsiung, Taiwan)

Pernicious Literacy and Working-Class Education in My Lady Ludlow

1. "The Unknown Public" and Working-Class Literacy

2. Mass Education and Social Mobility

3. Reading as Poaching

4. Literacy, Knowledge and Power

Sylvia's Lovers (1863)

18. KIMURA, Akiko (Waseda University, Japan)

The Lie and Discourses of Evil in Sylvia's Lovers

1. Evil and the Figure of the Hero

2. Evil and the Figure of the Heroine

3. Public and Private Spheres of Evil and Heroism

4. Beyond Speech and beyond Good and Evil

19. KOIVUVAARA, Pirjo (University of Eastern Finland, Finland)

The Evils of Drink in Sylvia's Lovers

1. Drinking Culture: Past and Present

2. Drinking Culture: Gender

3. Constructing Masculinity: Philip Hepburn

4. Reconstructing Masculinity: Daniel Robson

20. TAMAI, Fumie (Doshisha University, Japan)

Sylvia's Lovers: Liberty, Violence, and the Problem of Democracy

1. The Individual versus the State

2. The Reform Bill and the American Civil War

3. Liberty and Violence

4. The Past and the Present

A Dark Night's Work (1863)

21. KOUSTINOUDI, Anna (Aristotle University of Thessaloniki, Greece)

The Question of Evil in A Dark Night's Work: Psychic Investments in Societal/Social and Familial Bonds

1. Evil and Its Discontents
2. Potential Agents of Evil and/or Wrongdoing
3. Negotiating Good and Evil in A Dark Night's Work
4. Concluding but Not Resolving: Beginnings and/in Ending

Cousin Phillis (1864)

22. CHEN, Lizhen (Hangzhou Normal University, China)

Narrating Desire: Secrets and Disillusion in Cousin Phillis

1. Vision and Vistas
2. Sentiments, Injury and Disillusion
3. Adolescent Desire and Narrative Constraint
4. Secrets, Anguish and the Aftermath

23. HATANO, Yoko (Tsukuba Gakuin University, Japan)

Cousin Phillis: The Erosion of Faith at Hope Farm

1. The Erosion of Faith from Without
2. The Erosion of Faith from Within
3. Mirroring the Religious Unrest of the Age
4. Mirroring Gaskell's Anxiety

24. YATSUGI, Aya (Matsuyama University, Japan)

Sleeping Beauty and the Evil Influences of Fairy Tales in Cousin Phillis

1. The "Sleeping Beauty" Tale-Type in Cousin Phillis
2. Fairy Tales' Influence upon People's Consciousness
3. Phillis and the Beautiful Sleeper in "Curious, if True"
4. What Does It Take to Become Independent?

Wives and Daughters (1864-66)

25. ARAI, Megumi (Sophia University, Japan)

That Lady They Call Clare: The Evil Stepmother in Wives and Daughters

1. The Ogre in the Castle
2. Class and Social Comedy
3. Snobbery as a Destructive Force
4. "The Last Generation in England"

26. SUZUKI, Mitsuko (Tohoku University, Japan)

Deceit versus Honesty: Women's Education in Helen and Wives and Daughters

1. Rousseau and Wollstonecraft on Women's Education
2. Women's Education in Helen

3. Women's Education in Wives and Daughters
4. Gaskell's Intention in Wives and Daughters
27. WAGNER, Tamara (Nanyang Technological University, Singapore)
 - Tigerish Skin and Burnt Bouquets: Domestic Gothic in Wives and Daughters
 1. "Better than I Believed Him": Representing Villainy
 2. "With His Beautiful Striped Skin": Stalkers in the Pastoral
 3. Late Gaskell in Context: Sensationalising the "True Nature of Home"
 4. "We Won't Speak of Mamma": The Silly Stepmother

Short Stories

28. ENDERWITZ, Anne (Free University of Berlin, Germany)
 - Loving "without Thought of Self": Sin and Repentance in "Lizzie Leigh" and Other Stories
 1. Marks of Sin
 2. Words and Sympathy
 3. Death as a Disciplinary Instrument
 4. Self-indulgence versus Loving "without Thought of Self"
29. JAMES, Felicity (University of Leicester, UK)
 - Evil, Past and Present, in "Lois the Witch" and Other Short Stories
 1. Evil in Gaskell's Shorter Works
 2. Evil at Home: Gaskell's Gothic Settings
 3. Stories of Evil: Gaskell's Allusive Narrative
 4. Histories of Evil: Gaskell's Reflections on Religion
30. STYLER, Rebecca (University of Lincoln, UK)
 - Monstrous Parenting in "The Crooked Branch," "The Grey Woman," and "Right at Last"
 1. The Ambiguous Power of Parenting
 2. Deluded Parents in "The Crooked Branch"
 3. Indifferent Parents in "The Grey Woman"
 4. The Parental Curse in "Right at Last"
31. VASILYEVA, Elmira (St. Petersburg State University, Russia)
 - Sins and Tales in "The Old Nurse's Story," "The Doom of the Griffiths," and "Crowley Castle"
 1. Gaskell and the Gothic Tradition
 2. "The Old Nurse's Story" and the Sins of Youth
 3. "The Doom of the Griffiths" and the Sins of the Fathers
 4. "Crowley Castle" and the Secret Sins

Letters

32. OTA, Miwa (Chuo University, Japan)

Evil and the “Taste for Beauty and Convenience” in Gaskell’s Letters

1. More “Mes” in Her Letters than Her “Real” Writing
2. A “Delicious” Review
3. The Alluring Beauty of the Established Church
4. There Is “Just That Jar in F. N. to Me”

Last updated: 1 April 2015.